A Great Event at Journey's End

A walk on desolate paths by Galilee's sea ...
A story creating a good news commentary ...
Accentuated by acts of tender kindness ...
Accentuated by acts of righteousness ...
Approved by the descending spirit's dove ...
Approved by heaven's guidance from above ...
Accounts of healing society's alienated ...
Accounts of empowering the disenfranchised ...
An atmosphere of evil, crucified our friend ...
An empty tomb, now sacred at journey's end ...
Amazing grace fills our souls with innocence ...
Amazing glory for history's future deliverance ...
A precious gift from God, paradise sent ...
A promise for forgiveness, a great event.
As Judge of the quick and the dead ...
As Jesus, Lord of all, saves with life's bread!

Acts 10:34b-44 (GNV) Peter began to speak: "I now realize that it is true that God treats everyone on the same basis. Those who fear him and do what is right are acceptable to him, no matter what race they belong to. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, proclaiming the Good News of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all. You know of the great event that took place throughout the land of Israel, beginning in Galilee after John preached his message of baptism. You know about Jesus of Nazareth and how God poured out on him the Holy Spirit and power. He went everywhere, doing good and healing all who were under the power of the Devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of everything that he did in the land of Israel and in Jerusalem. Then they put him to death by nailing him to a cross. But God raised him from death three days later and caused him to appear, not to everyone, but only to the witnesses that God had already chosen, that is, to us who ate and drank with him after he rose from death. And he commanded us to preach the gospel to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God has appointed judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets spoke about him, saying that all who believe in him will have their sins forgiven through the power of his name." While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit came down on all those who were listening to his message.
